

SUPPORTING BRITISH NATIONALS IN AUSTRALIA DURING
THE CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19) PANDEMIC

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

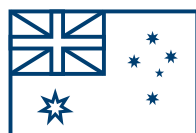

22 FLIGHTS WEEKLY

Currently there are 22 flights to the UK from Australia each week. Please use these routes. Our advice is that British travellers should make plans to return home now.

EMERGENCY LOAN

If you cannot afford travel costs and have exhausted all other options for getting funds, you may be eligible for an emergency government loan for a flight to the UK. Contact our government approved travel provider, CTM, on 1800 105 334 / +61 2 8268 4100 or UKrepatriationsaust@travelctm.com.

EXEMPTIONS TO LEAVE

If you are a dual UK/Aus national or a British Permanent Resident in Australia, you cannot leave Australia without an exemption to travel. For further details and to apply for an exemption, see: covid19.homeaffairs.gov.au/leaving-australia. Other British nationals are free to travel.

URGENT MEDICAL CARE

British nationals in Australia may be covered for essential and urgent medical care through the UK-Australia 'Reciprocal Healthcare Agreement'. Find out more at bit.ly/UKAusRecipricolHealth

GETTING HELP

Register your details to help us better understand the numbers, location and needs of British nationals in Australia. This will allow us to contact you directly including when we have updates from airlines on flight routes. Register at bit.ly/BritsinAustralia.

For urgent assistance, call +61 2 6270 6666.

VISA EXPIRY

The Australian government does not issue visa extensions. If your visa is due to expire or has already expired you should alert the Australian authorities and apply for a new visa now. Visit covid19.homeaffairs.gov.au to look at your options for a new visa.
